

LaCie Dupli Disc DVD125 USB 2.0

MULTIPLE DVD/CD DUPLICATION WITH THE TOUCH OF A BUTTON

● TIME-SAVING SOLUTION FOR OFFICES

A desktop duplicator is the ideal time-saving solution for distributing CDs or DVDs for sales promotion, training sessions, meetings, etc. Gigabytes of data, video or audio files can be copied in minutes. For duplicating small editions, the LaCie Dupli Disc DVD125 provides a much faster and cost-effective solution than professional duplication. Discs can be burned immediately and cost is limited to that of the media.

● ONE-TOUCH DUPLICATION

The LaCie Dupli Disc DVD125 saves valuable time by allowing users to create five DVDs/CDs or erase DVD-RW and CD-RW discs in less than 10 minutes without draining computer resources. The process does not require specialist knowledge; power the unit, insert the media, and then press the "copy" button. This intuitive system automatically recognizes DVD and CD formats for fast, hassle-free duplication and is compatible with most DVD and CD formats.

● STANDALONE OR CONNECTED

As a true standalone unit, the LaCie Dupli Disc DVD125 requires only a power supply to operate. Working independently from a computer, it can be shared among various office departments. Now with USB 2.0 interface, this duplicator can also be used as an external 16x DVD±RW drive with any Mac or PC. Create your master disc directly on the duplicator and then make exact copies of it.

● MULTIPLE FUNCTIONS & OPTIONS

The LaCie Dupli Disc DVD125 incorporates five DVD/CD writers and offers optional menus for advanced users. Duplication speed can be adjusted for high-quality audio and video duplication. Five system modes, including copy, test and verify options, accommodate multiple recording purposes.
